Early Thoughts Edge

Exciting news this week as we announce our partnership with CrossBet. Check out their website and app.

CrossBet came on board for our successful Mates Cave earlier this year and we are planning a range of joint initiatives and sharing of information.

Our motto is “You always find a winner with Early Thoughts” and we want to continue that adage into the new racing season.

Our Best Around Australia selections provided by Early Thoughts Crew members Super Man and The GM have been flying and it is always worth checking out the Early Thoughts late mail on the website. The 2-Bet strategy continues to be in profit in 2023.

So this week we are going to give out some more betting strategies for you to monitor and play around with.

As you know we like keeping things as simple as possible.

We all know that favourites win approximately a third of all races. However, if you just bet every favourite that will never be a profitable approach.

For many years now, I have been tracking favourites who are also the top rated horse. Now there are many ratings services you can subscribe to and there are also free ratings available on various racing related sites.

In the long run, just stick to the best ratings source that suits your needs and budget.

Anyway, through my research I have found a couple of key combinations which have a significantly higher strike rate than 33%.

PROPER
PUNTERS

First of all we are going to look at races over 1200m. Now I am not talking about every race over 1200m, but two specific types of races ... weight for age and 2 year old races.

Another type of race I like to target is 1600m set weight races.

So as the new season commences we will keep a track of these runners. In fact why don't we call them the Early Thoughts Edge and see if we can turn a profit on:

Top rated runners which are favourite in the following race types
1200m – Weight For Age and 2 year old races
1600m – Set weight races.

Men Matter

The Gold Coast Turf Club's Men Matter Raceday is on 29th July.

This is a very important day on the calendar which raises awareness, educates and fundraises for men's health charities.

We will have more to say in the next couple of weeks, but we encourage all readers to support this important day where you can.

There is a massive raffle associated with the day with prizes including a 2023 Skoda Octavia RS Wagon.
